ORDER STRIKING IMPROPERLY FILED NOTICES

[Re: ECF 122, 129]

12
13 On December 17, 2014, plaintiffs James McGibney and ViaView, Inc. (collectively, 14 “Plaintiffs”) filed a “Notice to Non-Party and Attempted Intervenor Susan Marie Basko to 15 Remove Her Improperly Filed Pleadings,” ECF 122. Although filed as a motion, this document is 16 styled as a “notice” to the Court and to non-party Basko and does not appear to seek any relief
17 from the Court. On December 30, 2014, Plaintiffs filed a similar “notice” to pro se defendant
18 Thomas Retzlaff styled as a “Notice to Retzlaff to Remove His False, Offensive, Scurrilous, 19 Scandalous and Improper Pleadings” and “Responses to Filings 126 and 127.” ECF 129. This 20 filing likewise does not appear to seek relief from the Court. Because these filings do not appear
21 to be motions addressed to the Court, they are STRICKEN as improperly filed.

22 The Court’s Case Management / Electronic Case Filing system is to be used for filing
23 motions, pleadings, and other communications with the Court, and not for communications among 24 parties and/or third parties. All future filings should accordingly be addressed to the Court.

25 IT IS SO ORDERED.
